In the second stage, which is open to the public, the candidates make a brief personal presentation and then give a seminar on a topic they consider appropriate. After the seminar, the committee will ask candidates about the qualifications listed in their curriculum vitae, the seminar just given or any other topic related to the contract offered and the work to be done in the position. Given the nature of the Serra Húnter Programme, this part may be conducted in English.

INDICATIONS FOR THE CANDIDATES ABOUT THE ORAL PRESENTATION

The session will begin once the candidates have been identified (identity card or passport). The order of intervention will follow the alphabetical order of the candidates' first surname.

Each candidate will have a maximum of 10 minutes for a brief presentation of his/her academic trajectory (teaching and research), plus a minimum of 30 minutes to give a seminar about one of his/her works (of his/her choice). The whole duration of the two parts will be 40 minutes. After these 40 minutes, there will be a non-specified time for questions posed by the committee about the qualifications listed in their curriculum vitae, the seminar just given or any other topic related to the position.
